Our Services

We offer our services to you which include:

- preparing and witnessing appropriate loan documentation on behalf of the funder. We are not linked to any of our lending panel members. Quotations

We will quote figures based on our funders' cost of funds. The funder has the right to change or decline these quotes on receipt of the full proposal. A lender may conduct a soft credit check and a hard credit check, prior to completion of the finance application. Further details will be available from the chosen lenders Privacy Notice or Terms and Conditions.

Our Remuneration

We do not charge you a fee for our service. We are remunerated by way of an introductory payment, payable by the funder. The nature of this payment and the effect on the interest rate you might pay will vary from funder to funder and is dependent upon a number of factors including (but not exclusive to) asset type, product chosen and customer circumstances. We do not take credit for payments due until the funding has been paid out. Once the most appropriate funder for your needs has been selected from our panel, the exact amount of commission we receive will be disclosed to you in good time, and before you enter into the finance agreement. If you were referred to us by an Appointed Representative, an Introducer Appointed Representative, or a Supplier with whom we hold a commercial relationship, we will also pay them a commission.
